

Disabilities and Encouragement

Any kind of a disability is hard to adjust to and accept. Sometimes we need to hear how others have adjusted and overcome adversity in these situations. Here are a few inspirational stories from people who have:

DB70651 - GOING BLIND - A nun reminisces about her father's loss of sight from retinitis pigmentosa.

DB/RC69667 - CRYSTAL CLEAR - The inspiring story of how an Olympic hockey player who lost his legs and feet thrived.

RC63105 DB63105 (download only)- SAVING GRACE - Elizabeth Edwards describes her ordeal of discovering breast cancer

DB69300 - RESILIENCE - continuing story of Elizabeth Edwards inspirational message of hope amid her personal tragedies.

DB/RC66901 - BEING WELL WHEN WE'RE ILL - Theologian with multiple disabilities gives advice on attaining wholeness, despite physical limitations.

DB/RC66076 - JONI: AN UNFORGETTABLE STORY - Joni Tada, paralyzed from the neck down due to a diving accident shares her struggles and overcoming situations through faith.

DB71909 - HOPE UNSEEN - Story of the Army's first blind active-duty officer.

DB/RC69912 - ALIVE DAY - Blind Psychiatrist treats paralyzed marine corporal who finds inspiration with help from therapy, medication and a guide dog.